

Molly is a cute collie puppy. Like all puppies, she chews on things, is not housebroken, and needs lots of training and attention. Her previous owners said they didn't have time for her.

Gigi is a quite, well-mannered, house-trained toy poodle, but she is not used to children or noise. She was turned into the shelter when her elderly owner had to move into a nursing home. The nursing home did not allow pets and the owner's family did not want to keep her.

Poppet is a long-haired guinea pig. She is used to being handled and enjoys being brushed. She needs a habitat to live in rather than a cage.

Jake is a ten-month-old terrier. He is small but full of energy. He needs lots of exercise and attention. Jake is housetrained and knows how to walk on a leash, but that's about it. He has no manners.

Pepe is a parakeet. He is used to flying around the house, just using his cage like a bedroom. Unfortunately, he flew out an open window. Someone found him sitting in a bush and brought him to the humane society.

Bozo is a large stuffed animal. He's cute and he doesn't need to be fed or waked or brushed. He can be left alone for days at a time.

Oliver is a three-year-old cat. He is neutered and declawed. He loves to sun himself in the window. His former owner got tired of cleaning the litter box.

Sassy is a two-month-old kitten. Like all kittens he is very mischievous. She climbs the curtains and plays with the plants. She needs to be supervised to keep her out of trouble.

Callie is a four-year-old, long-haired calico cat. Her coat is beautiful, but the fur mats if she isn't brushed every day. She is a little shy but purrs like crazy once she warms up. She has always been an indoor cat.

Buster is a big, mixed-breed dog. His former owner turned him into the shelter. He said he barked too much when people went by his yard. He said the neighbours complained about the barking.

Honey bun is a lop-eared rabbit. She is six months old. She is litter-trained. Like all rabbits, she needs exercise outside her cage but she chews everything she can get her teeth on.
